Mr.A.P.Mundargi with Mr.Amol Patankar for the applicant.

Mr.A.S.Gadkari, Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State.

...

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE & S.A.BOBDE,JJ.

DATE : JULY 14, 2006.

P.C.

1. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant-accused and the learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The accused is convicted for the murder of his wife. The murder was allegedly committed soon after the marriage. After the marriage, the father of the accused died and the wife, the deceased, was blamed for that. She was driven out of the house. When the mother of the deceased brought her back, she was not permitted entry in the house. The mother of the deceased went to the neighbours for bringing water. In the meanwhile, kerosene was poured on the wife and burnt her. Two dying declarations of the wife were recorded which are consistent. The mother of the victim immediately came back and witnessed the incident in the sense the situation after the incident. The accused was not on bail during trial.

3. In the result, the Criminal Application for bail is rejected.
